Nor is it intended to be in any important degree an autobiography. What I have attempted to do, and all I have attempted, has been to recall in writing something of what went on in the parish during the thirty-seven years of my rectorate, various characteristic incidents that occurred, certain personalities with whom it was my good fortune to have been most closely and helpfully associated and who played particularly important parts in my Winnetka ministry, and to expose my thinking and elements of my personal conviction that underlay and motivated my pastoral, as well as my teaching and preaching, ministry, while it was my God-given privilege to serve as Rector of Christ Church. They were exciting and cataclysmic years in the life of the Nation and of the world. Their span covered three great crises, namely World War I, the Great Depression, and World War II. They confronted the Christian Church with problems, responsibilities and opportunities of vast significance and importance. Herein is the story of how one Christian congregation undertook to meet and respond to the challenge of that era. I should be less than gracious were I to fail to express to the present Rector of Christ Church my warm appreciation of his action in asking me to write up this story. For it was in response to the urgent and generous request of Dr. William S. Lea that the task was undertaken. Nor can I fail to make known my gratitude to Mrs. Ethel B. Doolittle, who provided me with much material out of the archives...
