Odyssey Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 120 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.2in. x 0.5in. Sudden, shattering moments of realisation; creeping, gradual self-awareness - Catching the Barramundi is a collection of contemporary short stories charting the dichotomous processes of reassessment and reflection. The settings vary, but the characters in each tale experience moments of introspection and self-scrutiny, quite out of step with their daily lives. Catching the Barramundi follows Connie, who lives alone in an isolated store in Australia's Northern Territory, following the death of her husband. The arrival of Martyn - there to catch the local barramundi - awakens in her repressed feelings about her past, her children, and her life ahead. Snails on the Road addresses the nature and longevity of love, seen from a child's perspective, and the fragility of the family unit. Hades Landing is about returning home and the oxymoronic fragility of foundations. Lance's profession as an ice hockey player characterises him; he lives life at a fast pace with little in the way of commitments keeping him in one place. But he is undone by the sight of his demolished old town and finds the reality difficult to process. The Mirror Man is a story about perception and the individual's search for a truthful identity. Denny and her brother are at a local pub, where she spies a man who was once in a pop group popular when Denny was a teen. He is now much older and seedier. Working up the courage to speak to him, Denny tries to adopt a persona as a sexually alluring woman, but finds it difficult to maintain. Loving Enid charts...
