Melissa Smith Copyright Prohibited 2012 Dear Brother Tree, may I sojourn with thee perhaps, for one minute, an hour or the entire day? May I rest upon thy trunk, wilt thy embrace me with thy branches? Oh let me never be without thee for within thy embrace is the wellness for my being. Rev. Melissa Smith
Introduction On every continent of the Earth, trees exist. It is difficult to travel anywhere upon the planet without seeing a tree. Trees are necessary and essential to the everyday life of all life upon and within Earth. Trees provide shelter to man and small creatures. Trees provide food in the form of fruits and nuts that feed man and the creatures of the Earth. Throughout the planet, tree bark provides wood for the building of homes for shelter and furniture. Trees clean the air and keep the atmosphere free of toxins. The green and blooming flower trees provide visual and physical stimulation that is pleasing to the being of man. Throughout the...
