Here are some precepts from one of the sacred books of the Buddhists, which would find a fit place in our own beautiful Book of Proverbs: Conquer anger by mildness, evil by good, falsehood by truth. Be not desirous of discovering the faults of others, but zealously guard against your own. He is a more noble warrior who subdues himself, than he who in battle conquers thousands. (Compare with this Proverbs xvi. 32.) To the virtuous all is pure. Therefore think not that going unclothed, fasting, or lying on the ground, can make the impure pure, for the mind will still remain the same. I believe that Jesus Christ would say to every Brahman and Buddhist who strove to obey these precepts, the words which fell cheerily upon the Jewish lawyer's ear, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. XXXVII. Conclusion. Histories are often so made up of dates, giving the years when kings began to reign, when they died, and when famous battles were fought, that I daresay this early history of man, which has scarcely a date in it, seems a rather vague and confused story. But we have been travelling through ages so vast, that I might have confused you still more if I had spoken of years the number of which none of us can grasp, and put down guess-work figures with long rows of ciphers after them. It is through that twilight time of which...
