Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from First Report of the Industrial Accident Board: Of the State of California, From September 1, 1911, to December 31, 1912 Deaths. Four hundred and twelve (412) men lost their lives in the State of California during the year 1912 as the result of industrial accidents. Accidents. Ten thousand three hundred and eighty-five (10,385) men and women suffered disability while employed in the industries. (The deaths are included in the 10,385 cases.) Of this number 758 reports were unavailable for statistical purposes under the law, because of accidents causing loss of time of less than seven days and those occurring to agricultural employees. Consequently there were left 9,627 injuries for tabulation. Permanent Disabilities. Five hundred and thirty-four (534) accidents, or 5.54 per cent, resulted in crippling for life. The average impairment of physical power, it is estimated, was 25 per cent. Two (2) men were totally and; permanently disabled. Temporary Disabilities. Eight thousand six hundred and eighty-one (8,681) persons suffered temporary injuries, lasting anywhere from one week to six months, but resulting in complete recovery. This...
