Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Fishes of Pennsylvania: With Descriptions of the Species and Notes on Their Common Names, Distribution, Habits, Reproduction, Rate of Growth and Mode of Capture Early in 1891 Mr. Henry C, Ford requested me to prepare a paper upon the fishes of the State of Pennsylvania for the current report of the Fish Commission of which he is president. The scope of the article was, by mutual agreement, to be limited to brief descriptions of the species, with notes upon their common names, distribution, size, habits, reproduction, rate of growth and mode of capture. Inasmuch as the plan of the work involved the illustration of all the important fishes it was not considered essential to introduce keys for the identification of the species. The descriptions are chiefly original, and are based upon specimens contained in the collection of the United States National Museum at Washington, D.C. The popular notes have been obtained largely from original investigations and, in part, by compilation from the writings of Goode, Gill, Cope, and Jordan. In connection with field work...
