1993. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 378 It is a multi-disciplinary bibliographical study which enlists upto date references (without any duplication) about Tripura and its tribes. This covers almost all comprehensive inventory research source materials from monographs, articles, dissertation, reports, proceedings, etc., of pre- and post-Independence period from the year 1845 to 1992. The present book is perhaps the first-ever scholarly effort to enlist the major references on different aspects about the state and tribes with textual part of description and appendices. The introductory chapter has described the main aspects of geography, agriculture, forest, geology, historical and political administration, village, regional and district councils, chieftainship etc. with sociological and anthropological aspects of the tribes of Tripura. Besides these, this book has given a basic knowledge about its three districts and descriptive ideas on many other aspects of Tripura and its people. This exhaustive bibliographical work will definitely assist the scholars to locate the availability of the documents on different aspects of Tripura and its tribes relating to anthropology, sociology, religion, politics, economics, linguistics, psychology etc. The Author Index makes consultation easy. This will well serve as a ready-reckoner for the researchers.
