Excerpt: . . . Hydrographic Planning Team members ( l-r ) Cary Wong, Craig Martin, Allison Stolz, and Carolyn Lindley. Data quality is another big concern for the HPT. With the stress of shifting priorities, long hours, and the number of platforms requiring critical information, the team members have developed specific qual-ity control procedures for ensuring data accuracy. Each team member is responsible for checking the calculations of other team members before the data are released. The HPT also takes pride in seam-less communication with each other, which is an important factor not only in data quality but also for resolving many issues before they become major problems. When asked about their work during the 2005 hurricane events, the HPT members recall the chaotic nature of the meetings and the different directions in which they were pulled both during and after the storms. Says Cary Wong, who...
