Oh! if I only had your opportunities! That is what you said yesterday to your friend whose possessions and environment are unlike your own and are what you desire. She is placed so differently from yourself! She can do so much that is impossible for you! And she does not seem to value her possibilities as you would were they yours. With what a deep sigh did you think, How strangely things are ordered in this world! and there was the half-acknowledged thought that you could order them a great deal better if you could have your way. True enough. To one who has no insight into the deep things of God they seem very strangely ordered. Here is a woman who has money, social position, a beautiful home, and yet is not happy. Here is a man who has gained the worldly success he started early in life to win. His name is a power in the business and financial world, and as he plans many execute. Yet he is not happy. Here and there, all around you, you can put your finger on men and women who, with every facility for happiness, still lack it; whose faces are written over with that handwriting which is Nature's protest and revelation. When you look in their eyes you see haunting shadows, not the clear light which betokens an inward steadily shining sun. Why is this so? you ask....
