Askwynhow.com LLC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I am sorry for your loss. Several of my friends confessed that they felt totally inadequate when they sold probate property. They quickly realized that they didn't even know what they didn't know. You are not alone. Selling Probate Property has a beginning and a successful ending, with 10 steps that show you what's next. Following the steps, will guide you towards a successful probate sale and help remove your fear of the unknown. How much is your time worth? This book is designed to help you avoid making costly mistakes and wasting your precious time. You will better understand the probate process and by having your probate property information organized, you will have the necessary information readily available for submitting probate court documents. It's a fact, you will save money if you do the preparatory work and research for your probate attorney, instead of paying them to do it for you. Your loved one(s) would have wanted you to get the most money from the house they left you. The special discounts, time saving tips and recommendations, found in Selling Probate Property, will help you get top dollar in less time. If you are faced with the difficult task of dividing personal property between siblings, relatives and other heirs, the Selling Probate Property book includes three different options to accomplish this task. A former elementary school teacher, Wyn Ray began a successful real estate career in 1980. Wyn will teach you how to sell your inherited property for top dollar, in the fastest possible time and with the least inconvenience. Wyn has obtained the following designations: Certified Residential Specialist, Certified Residential Broker,...
