Dept. of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics, OCLC Number: (OCoLC)44280740 Subject: Federal aid to law enforcement agencies -- United States -- Periodicals. Excerpt: . . . Allowable expenses are detailed below. All expenses are allowable only to the extent that they directly relate to programs described in the applications program narrative. 1. Participation in III. This is a key goal. Covered costs include, but are not limited to, costs associated with automation of the database, synchronization of records between the State and the FBI, and development of necessary software and hardware enabling electronic access on an intrastate or interstate basis. 2. Database enhancement. Improving the quality, completeness, and accuracy of criminal history and sex offender and protection order records is a key goal of the NCHIP effort with particular focus on automating the interface between the record repository and prosecutors, courts, and corrections. Allowable costs include the costs associated with implementing improved criminal history record capture procedures ( including complete arrest reporting and researching missing dispositions, provided that the captured data are subsequently included in the permanent automated database ), establishing more effective accuracy controls, and ensuring that records of all criminal events that start with an arrest or indictment are included in the database. BJS anticipates that in many cases accomplishing this goal will entail direct transfer of funds from the designated NCHIP agency to the courts. Funds may be used to capture data on domestic violence misdemeanor convictions and to ensure that data on persons convicted of abuse of children, the elderly, and the disabled and or stalking and domestic violence offenses ( including protection orders and violations thereof ) are included in the database. Funds...
