Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Canonical Uncanonical Gospels: With a Translation of the Recently Discovered Fragment of the Gospel of Peter, and a Selection From the Sayings of Our Lord Not Found in the Four Gospels My object in writing the following pages is to throw light on a subject on which many important misconceptions prevail. Even educated people are content to speak as if the Four Gospels had no history at all, or as if they first appeared in the fourth century A.C., coming from an unknown source. This treatise, therefore, will not be wholly useless if it makes it clear that the Canonical Gospels were beyond all doubt received as The Four Authoritative Gospels at least one hundred and twenty years before Constantine established Christianity as the State religion. Neither the first Christian emperor(311-337 A.D.), nor the great Council of Nicaea (325 A.D.), had anything to do with selecting, as some have supposed, our Fours out of a large number of Gospels.
