The Board organized their body immediately after the rising of the last Assembly, by chosing their officers; and as the Assembly had changed their style from that of a Committee to that of a Board of Missions, and invested them with a corresponding enlargement of powers, they deemed it proper to change the name of one of their officers from that of Chairman to that of President. Agreeably to the direction of the last Assembly, the Board took measures for the formation of Auxiliary Missionary Societies throughout the bounds of our Church. An address was prepared and printed, in which the subject is distinctly and fully laid before the churches; and their attention is solicited to it by considerations that were deemed suitable to impress them with the great importance of such...
