In arts complete remembrance: nothing clings For long but laurel to the stricken brow That felt the Muses finger; nothing less Than hells fulfilment of the end of things Can blot the star that shines on Paris now. When we can all so excellently give The measure of loves wisdom with a blow, --Why can we not in turn receive it so, And end this murmur for the life we live And when we do so frantically strive To win strange faith, why do we shun to know That in loves elemental over-glow Gods wholeness gleams with light superlative Oh, brother men, if you have eyes at all, Look at a branchj a bird, a child, a rose, --Or anything God ever made that grows, --Nor let the smallest vision of it slip, Till you can read, as on Belshazzars wall, The glory of eternal partnership! SUPREMACY There is a drear and lonely tract of hell From all the common gloom removed afar: A flat, sad land it is, where shadows are, Whose lorn estate my verse may never tell. I walked among them and I knew them well: Men I had slandered on lifes little star For churls and sluggards; and I knew the scar Upon their brows of woe ineffable. But as I went majestic on my way, Into the dark they vanished, one by one, Till, with a shaft of Gods eternal day, The dream of all my glory was undone,...
